MEDIA RELEASE

Tailwind Capital to Present at 7th Annual China Airfinance Conference in Beijing, China

April 7th, 2009

Bryson Monteleone, Marketing Director for Tailwind Capital LLC, has been invited to speak at this year's 7th Annual China Airfinance Conference in Beijing (June 25-26, 2009). Bryson is slated to speak on the impact of the current global recession on aircraft values and trends in secondary market trading. As an ISTAT Certified Appraiser, Monteleone has appraised and advised companies on aircraft values and trends for the past 11 years, and is recognized in the international media as an expert on aircraft valuations.

Monteleone will also be participating on a panel discussing timing opportunities for investing in aircraft and airlines. This panel discussion will focus on looking at aircraft and airlines as investments and understanding the cyclical realities of the industry and where the true opportunities and pitfalls lie.

Tailwind is actively engaged in the commercial aviation industry as it remarkets and source aircraft, of all types, for its clients and advise on potential investment opportunities on a multitude of levels, including: business plans, corporate finance and tangible and intangible assets.
